

REPRESENTATIVE SAMPLE EMPLOYMENT AND DISCRIMINATION MATTERS FOR LIEBER & LIEBER, LLP

- Represent plaintiffs in gender, race and age discrimination suits against small, large and multinational companies and banking institutions
- Represent employees in connection with labor law violations by companies and their agents
- Represent employees in disputes under employment agreements
- Negotiated employment agreements and equity compensation arrangements on behalf of executives at telecommunications, marketing, investment banking, investment relations, apparel and other companies
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement on behalf of a managing partner at a private equity fund upon his departure from the fund
- Advised executives of a major telecommunications company in respect of severance arrangements upon the termination of their employment
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement on behalf of an executive at a public pharmaceutical company following the termination of his employment, and in the assertion of age-discrimination and breach of contract claims in connection therewith
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement on behalf of executives at a public investment relations company following termination of their employment and the assertion of gender discrimination claims in connection therewith
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement on behalf of an executive at a public upscale apparel/accessories company following termination of her employment
- Represented a senior sales executive at a computer sales and services company following termination of her employment and in the assertion of gender and age discrimination claims and claims for commissions
- Represented an employee at a major utility company following termination of her employment and in her assertion of race and gender discrimination claims
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement on behalf of an executive at a New York City architecture company following termination of her employment
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement, including resolution of commission disputes, on behalf of a senior sales executive at a major supplier of trade and retail management software following termination of his employment
- Negotiated a comprehensive severance agreement on behalf of an executive at a provider of electronic payment applications following termination of his employment
- Represented an employee at an international news corporation following termination of his employment
- Represented a Long Island insurance consulting company in its negotiation of a retention and non-compete agreement with another insurance consulting company